RED CHINA TO PULL OUT OF N. KOREA

Seoul, Korea, (AP)—Red China said today it will withdraw all its troops from North Korea by the end of this year. The move is another attempt to pressure U. N. forces out of South Korea.

The Communist "volunteers" who poured across the Yalu River from Manchuria during the Korean War will begin recrossing by April 30 whether U. N. forces leave or not, said a communique issued by Chinese premier Chou En-lai and North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung in Pyongyang.

The two Communist premiers challenged the U. N. forces to quit South Korea.

The announcement was greeted with skepticism in Seoul and Washington. U. S. officials have rejected earlier Red demands for the withdrawal of U. S. forces and showed no sign of acceding to this one.

The U. N. commander, U. S. Gen. George Decker, pointed out only the Yalu separates North Korea, and a troops could return to Korea positions "within a matter of a few days."

The nearest major U. S. base since the recent withdrawal of U. S. ground forces from Japan is the island of Okinawa, 500 miles south of Korea.

The South Korean defense minister, Kim Chung Yul, said the announcement "smacks of cunning intrigue and appears to be a pretext for propaganda. We can never take it seriously."

The Chinese-North Korean announcement followed up a Pyongyang proposal two weeks ago for withdrawal of all foreign forces from Korea and negotiations between the Northern and Southern regimes to arrange unification elections supervised by "neutral" nations. South Korea said it would not negotiate with the Northern Communists and any elections would have to be supervised by the U. N.

Minnie Jean to Attend School in New York City

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The mother of Minnie Jean Brown, 16-year-old Negro girl expelled from Little Rock Central High School, said today her daughter will leave Saturday for New York to attend New Lincoln School there.

In confirming a report that Minnie Jean will accept a $1,050 scholarship to the school, Mrs. Brown said that "while I'm grateful I'm not happy."

Mrs. Brown said "It is my hope that Minnie Jean can leave Saturday so as to be able to begin school Monday."

Minnie Jean's tuition would be free. The school is a private interracial institution with an enrollment of 432.

The offer was made for the private school by Dr. John J. Brooks, its founding director. It is believed that the girl will move to New York next week.

Minnie Jean was expelled from Little Rock Monday. School officials declined to give reasons. She had been involved in racial incidents. Minnie Jean was one of nine Negroes attending integrated classes at the Little Rock school under federal troop protection since last Sept. 25.

Stassen Reveals His Plans For an Aggressive Campaign

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today he would campaign for governor of Pennsylvania on a platform of "more jobs and more paychecks for Pennsylvanians."

Stassen, who last Saturday announced he would seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination after resigning as President Eisenhower's disarmament adviser, listed expansion of manufacturing and industry as the No. 1 goal of his program.

He said that, if he wins the GOP nomination and is elected governor, he would divide the 67 counties of this state into seven development board regions, each designed to help bring Pennsylvania back as a leading manufacturing state.

The regions, to be organized around river valleys and railroads, were listed as:

1. Southeast—Philadelphia, Chester, Montgomery, and Delaware counties, and adjoining areas of the Delaware Valley.

2. East Central—York, Harrisburg, Lancaster.

3. Northeast—Scranton, Wilkes-Barre.

Rough Going in New York

A gentleman with a shovel has work on his mind during a snowstorm in New York City. Very little traffic is seen in the photo taken on Eighth Avenue and looking east on 34th Street. The area had its heaviest snowfall in two years. (NEA Telephoto.)

Many Autos and Trucks Are Stalled in and Around Erie

Pittsburgh, (AP)—Fresh snow and wind today dealt another severe blow to Western Pennsylvania which already is reeling from one of the worst winter storms in years.

One to three inches of new snow fell over most of the area with Erie, Somerset and northern Cambria counties apparently getting the worst of it.

Virtually all roads in Erie and Somerset counties were closed as strong winds drifted the snow as high as 30 feet. The two counties already had sizeable accumulations of snow on the ground.

Only Route 20 in northern Erie county and Route 30 in Somerset were open. Many main roads in other counties were open only to one-way traffic. Most secondary and rural roads were impassable.

State police at Erie said hundreds of autos and trucks were stalled on drifted roads. The city of Erie managed to keep its streets open for the morning rush hour.

Rural schools in most counties remained closed for the third day. Dwindling supplies of natural gas forced factories and mines to close or curtail operations.

The marathon cold wave continued through the 12th day, but temperatures moved above the zero mark where they had hovered the past two days.

Ice clogged the Monongahela, Ohio and Allegheny rivers in the Pittsburgh district, blocking the movement of coal barges. As a result, steel firms began furloughing mill and mine workers.

The ice posed a flood threat should a sudden thaw and heavy rains set in. Vernon Houghton, the Weather Bureau's chief river forecaster, said the greatest danger lies in the possibility that the choked-up rivers would back up waters running off from smaller streams in the area.

The Allegheny is virtually frozen from Pittsburgh to Olean, N. Y. The Monongahela river, which rarely freezes, is covered with ice much of its length.

Officials of the plant infirmary said they treated 27 workmen for minor injuries. Four other men, including one fireman, were hospitalized with more serious injuries.

Bodies of the six killed were found near the furnace which exploded. Company officials said 20 of the plant's 38 melting and casting furnaces were in operation on the night shift. About 85 men were at work when the blast occurred.

Firemen fought the explosion-triggered fire for about two hours before bringing it under control. The blaze had spread to several sections of the 63½-acre installation. Firemen from several nearby towns were called to help.

FRANCE WILL COMPROMISE ON TUNISIA

By JOHN SCALI
WASHINGTON (AP)—France was reported ready today to give up five small Tunisian air bases and convert its Bizerte naval base into an Atlantic Pact installation to ease tensions in the area.

American and British diplomats pushed backstage arrangements to help France and Tunisia settle their dispute.

The U. N. Security Council met to consider the dispute but turned it over to the conciliators, who said they had affirmative proposals in mind.

Responsible diplomats said France was ready to consider, as part of any peace plan, substantial reductions in the 15,000-man force it maintains in Tunisia.

They insisted, however, that if Bizerte is converted into a North Atlantic Pact base, French forces must be allowed to man the installations. France would not object, however, they said, to including personnel from other Atlantic Pact countries too.

Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba has demanded that France withdraw all her troops and abandon the Bizerte base. He acted after French planes bombed and strafed a village. France said was an Algerian rebel stronghold.

To demonstrate their view that France is prepared to be reasonable, the diplomats reported that Premier Felix Gaillard's government also was ready to:

1. Create a corps of French-Tunisian observers to watch the border with Algeria and check frontier violations by either French or Algerian rebel forces.

2. Create a five-kilometer-wide "no man's land" on the Algerian side of the Tunisian border. This probably would be an extension of the present electrified barbed wire fortifications the French have erected along 700 miles of the 1,200-mile frontier.

Nixon Put On Spot About Prospects In 1960 Campaign

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Vice President Nixon tackled a news conference presumption that he will be a presidential candidate in 1960 by staking whatever aspirations he may have on his record.

His questioners at the conference, a feature of a dinner in his honor, asked when he would start speaking for himself as a possible candidate for the Republican nomination, rather than speaking for President Eisenhower's administration.

"The one assumption you are making is to presume I will run in 1960," Nixon replied.

"I feel the most effective way to run for office is to do a good job at what you're doing and let the future take care of itself. I am going to do the best job I can of defending and articulating administration policy," he said.

"I can only say that if by being a good vice president in presenting the views of the administration I don't become an effective candidate for other office, then that is just another of the burdens of the office I hold."

Crosses Allegheny on Ice to Win $50 Bet

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Joseph Thomas of Russellton R.D. 2 attracted a large crowd as he walked on thin ice from the south bank of the Allegheny River to its north bank here.

"It was a breeze," Thomas said yesterday "after the feat. 'But boy is it cold out there.'"

Thomas crossed to win a $50 bet. He didn't say whether he collected.

But he lost out to police. They charged him with vagrancy and put him in jail for his own safety.

Paralyzing New Snow Visits Some Sections of the State

Six Registrants to Leave Next Tuesday

Warren County Selective Service Board 162 announces a contingent of six registrants will be sent to New Cumberland next Tuesday for induction into the Army on Wednesday.

Leaving by east-bound Pennsylvania train Tuesday evening will be Roy G. English, Warren; Darrell C. Johnson and Richard L. Latimer, Warren RD.; Frank Camisano, Jr., Tidout; Arthur T. Ireland, Corry; and George W. Morton, Bear Lake RD.

More Snow Accompanies Warming Air

In a warming wake of Arctic air, came snow.

An additional 1.2 inches drifted down across Warren County yesterday leaving 14 inches "on the ground". Elsewhere, back in the hills and in drifting territory, the accumulations rose over 30 inches in hollows and other marshalling points.

A light snow was falling this morning as highway crews continued to work around the clock to clear byways in the northern reaches of the county. The worst winds appeared to have halted, but more falling snow coupled with lighter winds kept plows busy.

Schools reopening today were North Warren, Starbrick and Mead Township. Borough schools remained open as usual.

Still closed this morning were the Jointures of North Area and Brokenstraw and Irvinedale School. No buses brought Scandia High school pupils into Warren, nor were buses running to Warren from the Follett Run, Dutch Hill, Yankee Bush or Mead Township areas.

Temperatures rose to a high of 11 degrees Tuesday and the overnight low was an official 8 above. Skating remained good at Beatty rink but the crowd was composed of a small "doughty" bunch, according to Weather Observer Gil Reier.

Coldest Weather of Season Appears Easing in the East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The season's coldest and stormiest weather in the Eastern half of the nation appeared easing in some sections of the mid-continent today but the over-all picture was not bright.

There was no letup in the big task of snow removal in the storm-battered Northeast and other areas hit by record falls over the weekend.

Business and industry, dealt staggering blows by the violent weather, worked to restore operations to normal.

Relief work continued for the countless thousands who suffered misery and inconvenience. In Eastern areas there were isolated rural villages, marooned farmers, fuel and food shortages in the wake of the worst snowstorm in years in many places. Transportation was hard hit in the Northeast.

The economic loss was expected to run into millions. Although temperatures moderated a little in some central parts of the country, winter's longest stretch of cold weather persisted in most of the Eastern half.

Light snow and gusty winds hampered snow removal jobs across the deep snow belt from Michigan and the lower Great Lakes region eastward through much of New York and Pennsylvania and interior sections of New England.

The latest count of deaths attributed to the stormy-cold weather reached 209 in 26 states. They were reported in areas from the East to Missouri and Iowa and from Maine to Alabama.

Northwesterly winds whipped across the heavy snow in the Northeast quarter of the country. Winds from 20 to 30 m.p.h. were general with gusts up to 40 m.p.h. in sections of the mid-Atlantic Coast.

IKE'S SPECIAL MESSAGE CAUTIONS AGAINST SOVIET AND RED CHINA THREATS

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower today asked Congress for $3,942,100,000 in foreign aid. He said any sharp cut would lead to a massive defense spending hike, higher taxes and heavily increased draft calls.

In a special message cautioning against Soviet Union and Red China threats, the President also said deep reductions would leave America eventually beleaguered in a world dominated by international communism.

Eisenhower called the administration plan a deterrent to general nuclear war.

"For the safety of our families, for the future of our children and our continued existence as a nation, we cannot afford to slacken our support of the mutual security program," he said.

The President's strong appeal went to the lawmakers against the background of an already intense drive by some House members and senators to make sharp cuts in the program, particularly the economic aid phase. Fully aware of the opposition, Eisenhower plugged especially hard for enactment.

Eisenhower asked for $2,635,000,000 for military aid and related defense support. The balance is mainly for economic aid.

In pressing for economic assistance for newly independent countries, the President noted that the Soviet Union and the Communist bloc nations are trying to lure the new countries with offers of such help.

Referring to those countries, Eisenhower said "They know recent history which shows plainly that whenever the opportunity has arisen, the Soviet Union has swallowed up its neighbors and is willing to use tanks to crush attempts to gain freedom from Soviet domination."

At the very outset of his 3,000-word message, transmitted from his vacation headquarters, the President said those who want to discontinue or sharply reduce the aid program "must well measure the consequences."

He listed them as:
"A severe dislocation and basic impairment of free world power;
"A certain crumbling, under Sino-Soviet pressures, of our strategic overseas positions and a forcing of these positions back toward our own shores;

"A massive increase in our own defense budget in amounts far exceeding mutual security appropriations, necessitating increases in taxes

"A heavy increase in inductions (Turn to Page Eight)

Defense Official Spends Much Time For Own Company

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators are asking the Defense Department to determine whether a former defense official should repay any salary for using government time to work for his company.

The Senate Investigations sub-committee said yesterday Robert A. McDonald, who resigned Feb. 1 as a $16,000-a-year deputy assistant secretary of defense, spent twice as many office hours with his company as he did at the Pentagon, though much of it was unpaid leave time.

McDonald, contacted in New York, said: "I was never away without my boss' permission."

The Defense Department declined comment.

President Invites Russian Leaders To Visit America

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's proposal that influential Soviet citizens come to the United States may have opened the way for an eventual visit by top Soviet leaders.

In his latest letter to Premier Bulganin Monday, Eisenhower suggested that "leaders of thought and influential citizens within the Soviet Union should come to visit the United States . . . to learn at first hand the feeling of our people toward peace and the working of our popular institutions as they relate."

State Department officials interpreted this not as a direct bid to Bulganin and Communist party boss Khrushchev. They said it was aimed, rather, at Communist party leaders, top-flight Soviet university authorities, editors of major newspapers and government officials of cabinet rank.

Nevertheless, some officials speculated that if the Soviets took up the Eisenhower proposal and carried through exchanges at a lower level, visits by the men who actually run the Soviet Union would become a distinct possibility.

Subcommittee Probes Deeper Into TV Contest

WASHINGTON (AP)—House sub-committee probes dig deeper into Miami's famed fight for TV Channel 10 today after a new round of name dropping involving four U. S. senators.

A. Frank Katzentzine, whose examiner - approved application to operate a television station was overruled by the Federal Communications Commission, was called as the day's chief witness.

The House Commerce sub-committee began checking into the controversial case after its ousted counsel Bernard Schwartz testified that $2,650 in checks had been paid to FCC Commissioner Richard A. Mack while the case was pending.

Schwartz said the money came from Thurman A. White, a Miami lawyer who he said was interested in the case in behalf of National Airlines. Mack was one of four commissioners who voted 4-2 to give the TV grant to Public

New Civic Auditorium For Pittsburgh Planned

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Construction of a new civic auditorium in downtown Pittsburgh may cost 1½ million dollars less than anticipated by the Auditorium Authority.

Bids submitted by contractors yesterday indicate the total cost of the auditorium, including a dome-shaped retractable roof, will be $15,476,874.

Edward Fraher, executive director of the authority, said construction may start within a few months. Hundreds of homes and buildings in the lower Hill District have been razed for the project.

to be identified, said Lawrence is now leaning toward James W. Knox, Allegheny County controller.

The developing impasse is the result of a decision by Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia to get out of the race. Both Leader and Lawrence had backed Dilworth.

"There is a difference in thinking at this stage between the governor and Mayor Lawrence," the Democratic source told the

Canada Dry Stages Golden Anniversary

Honoring the creation of its world famous ginger ale, Canada Dry has launched a Golden Anniversary Celebration this month with a major promotion featuring a generous refund offer to consumers.

It was early in the century that J. J. McLaughlin, a gold medal chemist of Toronto, marketed the first pale dry ginger ale the world had ever known. "It may sound immodest now, but it is a fact that this product had a revolutionary effect on consumer drinking habits," said Luke Thorvatt, owner of the Canada Dry Bottling Co. of Johnsonburg. "For our Golden Anniversary Celebration, we are toasting all the consumers who brought us success, by offering them drinks on the house."

During the four-week promotion, all family-size Canada Dry Ginger Ale will be capped with special gold crowns. Consumers are invited to mail three gold crowns to Canada Dry for a 30-cent refund.

Historically, Canada Dry built its reputation on chemist McLaughlin's creation of "The Champagne of Ginger Ales," whose formula is a closely guarded secret. For a quarter-century this was the only product under the Canada Dry name. Shortly before Repeal, the company introduced its second product, Club Soda. Since then, others were added in more rapid succession. Today, Canada Dry occupies a unique position as the only beverage company offering a complete line of nationally distributed beverage products under a single trademark.

RADIO and TV

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — "Wide World" (NBC-TV) is always interesting when it focuses its wide scope on ordinary rather than extraordinary American life. The examination of middle age on Sunday was a good example.

It's a long time since television has offered a more absorbing study of everyday living than the sequence on the pleasures and problems of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bewig and their family in a St. Louis suburb. Another interesting segment was a discussion by Walter Pitkin Jr., on why he abandoned book publishing in New York to run a book store in Westport Conn.

As sometimes happens with "Wide World," however, the program was at times carried away by its own rhetoric. There was too much lush prose and not enough simple English in Sunday's study of middle age. . .

If there is anything of more absorbing interest on television than a hot Senate investigation, you name it. "Twentieth Century" (CBS-TV) recaptured a few of the highlights of the 1951 Kefauver crime investigation on Sunday.

Although more superficial than the better "Twentieth Century" production, Sunday's program brought back briefly those days of seven years ago when numerous people bought television sets to watch the TV stars of those weeks: Virginia Hill and William O'Dwyer, Tony Anastasia and Frank Costello.

When, if ever, will day-time television focus its cameras for hours on another fascinating congressional investigation? . . .

Squeals of youthful joy greeted the opening of the new Dick Clark program of music (ABC-TV), Saturdays, 7:30 p.m., EST. This is definitely a program for youth. Oldsters retreat to your books or bridge games.

On February 14 a Valentine Box was the order of the day at West Branch School, with an exchange of Valentines by the students, including a goodly number from here.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Playwright Tennessee Williams has joined the legion of those who seek on an analyst's couch an answer to their tensions.

"I had two kinds of tranquilizers this afternoon," he apologized as, shirt-sleeved and yawning, he opened the door of his apartment. "I'm still sleepy."

Five times a week, Tennessee, a small graceful man with a brown mustache, goes to a psychoanalyst who has helped iron out the idiosyncrasies and firm up the ego of a number of celebrated theater folk. At $50 an hour this is a mental comfort Williams couldn't afford during a poverty-ridden, second-class childhood. But now he thinks it's well worth the money.

"I find it immensely stimulating," he said as he sat down in a sofa across from a large bust of Lord Byron.

But psychoanalysis, so far as he can tell, hasn't affected his work. Two of his plays are currently on the boards at an off-

Broadway theater. Tennessee also gets up as early as 5 a.m. to put in two or three hours on his latest play before going to see his analyst.

It deals with "the corruption of a young man, the corruption of an older woman, and the corruption of an entire community by a political boss," he said.

To some critics, Williams is one of the most gifted and forceful playwrights of the 20th century. To others, outraged by his use of dramatic themes ranging from cannibalism to homosexuality, he is a twisted writer whose idea of a holiday is to go roving in a sewer.

"Not all my plays, by any means, are violent," he said. "And they are more concerned with morality than most plays."

"All plays that explore evil and the roots of it in people, and the conditions that produce it, are moral. But some people will always regard them as immoral."

To Williams, the biggest problem in the world is fear.

"The fear of a threat to his personal security is at the root of every person's violence and hatreds," he said.

"Evil is merely a sickness—a psychic distortion. Education has to be revamped so as to cope with a student's basic psychic problems, and not merely teach him trigonometry or Latin."

"These problems begin early and if caught in time can be corrected—but not after they explode in violence. Then it is too late. Evil matured is hard to cure."

"The main evil of our time is overpopulation—people having more children than they can care for properly, because they are so harassed by the mere task of making a living they don't have time to give proper love."

"I don't understand," said Tennessee, who is a bachelor, "why nothing is done to stop this spawning of children in families that can't even afford to have one."

"It is a crime—an awful crime."

Almost all the crude oil of the United States is found in rock formations that are more than 440 centuries old.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER
Once again the United Church Women of the National Council of Churches cordially invite all in the community to join with them in a World Day of Prayer service, the time set for 2:00 p. m. Friday, February 21, when the prayers of chanting aborigines in the wilds of Central Australia will be voiced in many tongues around the globe.
A committee of church women in Melbourne carefully selected four of these prayers from nomadic tribeswomen, who have no written language but have been taught the Christian gospel. Around these has been written the service for this 72nd annual international observance.
The women of Melbourne noted the supplications of these simple people to their Maker are in tune with the hopes and aspirations of the United Nations and of the concepts of One World, for they ask God's love for "people of all places in the earth."

Each year the service that will be said in some 60 languages and in more than 1,000 dialects comes from a different country, and World Day of Prayer is set aside to unite all Christians in the bond of prayer and to receive offerings for Christian missions at home and abroad. At no time in the 24-hour passage of the sun around the earth, when millions of women join in a prayer vigil, will be the chain be broken.

Theme for 1958 is The Bread of Life and, so, in 144 countries on six continents supplicants will as "for bread for the physically hungry and for the Bread of Life for those who hunger and thirst spiritually; bread for the souls of men in the form of mercy, grace and Divine fellowship; for those who are starved for love and understanding, for the lonely ones, the strangers, the refugees."

WOMEN AT WORK
If any American males still are hanging onto that old one which reads "woman's place is in the home," they'd better let go.
Today, with a total U. S. labor force close to 68 million strong, women hold almost a third of the jobs—22 million.
Indeed, the Department of Commerce forecasts that by 1975 the number may reach 33 million, matching the country's total labor force in 1905.
The present total of working men is eight times that found in 1880, when women still were mostly in the home. Today's figures are even more astonishing when it is realized that of all American women aged 45 to 64, some 42 per cent are in the labor force. And this figure is rising too.

Let's stop kidding ourselves, men. The days of home-baked bread, home-laundried shirts, etc., are gone forever. We'd just better be thankful we can still get an occasional home-cooked meal.

SLEEP WELL, MISS LESSER
Sleep well, Miss Lesser. For resting with you are all the refinements, gentility and traditions of an era which you long outlived, yet maintained. Though tenacious of lifelong habit and customs, your mind stayed alert and active, always ready to grasp a new concept as a changing world moved into a Space Age, far removed from your family's mode of existence which you retained with intelligence and grace, as long as health permitted.

"Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."
(Luke 5:4)
This is Ash Wednesday—in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred fifty-eight. Through the centuries, some church groups have emphasized the Lenten season. Not only will they do so again, but also an increasing number of Christians not found in these groups will be repentant and thoughtful during the forty-day period.
Many of us will participate in Ash Wednesday services today. We will pray for forgiveness of past sins and seek guidance that this will be a period of spiritual enrichment.
Through the Lenten season some will deny themselves meat or something they particularly like. Some will give up certain activities and devote more time to devotional reading, meditation, and prayer. Perhaps too many of us, however, will deny ourselves something rather than deny ourselves in order to follow Christ.
Through this Lenten period may we as Christ's followers be joined in casting our nets into the calm and refreshing depths of God's redemptive love.
PRAYER
Our dear Father, too often we have allowed things to come between Thee and us. O Lord, forgive. Guide us this Lenten season in our quest for a closer fellowship with Thee. Through Christ Jesus, our Saviour, we humbly pray. Amen.

★ EDSON IN WASHINGTON ★
Farm Spokesman's Book Rakes Benson Over Coal
BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The most vicious hatchet job yet done on Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Tamm Benson has appeared here in a pocket-size book by Wesley McCune, for the last two years public relations director for National Farmers Union, bitter Benson foe.
From 1948 to 1953 McCune was executive assistant to Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan. For the next three years McCune was farm expert for Democratic National Committee. This makes his new book, "Ezra Tamm Benson—Man With a Mission," pretty much of a political campaign document for 1958.
It opens with an accusation that Secretary Benson proposed reduction of minimum price support level from 90 to 75 per cent of parity at the same time Secretary of Labor Robert C. Mitchell was advocating increase of minimum industrial wage from 75 to 90 cents an hour.
The book's introduction goes on from there to accuse Secretary Benson of these other inconsistencies:
—That he is a leading advocate of economy, though his department is now spending more money per year than his predecessors.
—That he decries politics, but has made more speeches and done more traveling than any Cabinet member except Secretary Dulles.
—That he attacks government interference with agriculture, though the Soil Bank is the biggest of all interference schemes.
WITH THIS INTRODUCTION, the author goes on to examine Secretary Benson's religious background for his agricultural reform crusade. His career from Mormon missionary to his position as one of the 12 Apostles of the Church of Latter Day Saints is reviewed.
In personal criticism of this kind, McCune's book may be considered as going too far. It could conceivably backfire politically. For whatever objections may have been raised to Benson's policies, his sincerity has heretofore not been questioned.
The 125-page book pulls together all the charges that have been hurled against Benson, in Congress and out.
IN A SHORT FINAL chapter McCune offers a summary on U.S. farm conditions after five years of Benson policies.
He reports the index of farm prices down from 267 to 245. The index of things farmers buy is up from 282 to 298.
Farm income has dropped from 15 billion dollars in 1952 to under 12 billion dollars for the last three years, with a total loss for the past five years of over 14 billion dollars.
Average per capita farm income is said to have dropped from $702 to $601, while non-farm income is up from $1,800 to $2,000.
Farm share of consumer dollar is down from 47 to 38 cents.
Meanwhile government surpluses have risen from one billion dollars in 1952 to over five billion dollars in 1957.
SECRETARY BENSON'S previous answers to many of these figures has been that they are due primarily to Democratic farm policies which the Republican administration inherited. If these policies could be changed to President Eisenhower's program, Benson is convinced things would get better.
As if anticipating some such general indictment as is contained in the new McCune book, Secretary Benson in his National Press Club speech charged that his critics have resorted to "vicious untruths" to block his program.
He denies that he is trying to scrap all price supports. And he sticks doggedly to his belief that past farm prosperity was due to government administered, high, fixed price supports.

Players' Club Presents

Better known to dramatic audiences as "Shelly", Mrs. Bruce Wood in private life resides at 110 Hill street with her husband and two children. Native of Warren, Mrs. Wood is no newcomer to Warren Players' Club, having starred in many productions. Most recent of these was "Suspect," directed by Lois Muir.

Always interested in dramatics, Rachel was active in this field as far back as high school days and portrayed many character parts. Turning now to highly emotional role, that of Romaine Vole in Agatha Christie's "Witness for the Prosecution," she returns to the limelight at the Woman's Club February 27-28.

The play, a three-act tale of murder and suspense, is considered one of Christie's best, and had a long, successful run on Broadway, a well as adaptation by Arthur Hornblow of United Artists for a current flicker receiving much acclaim and good reviews.

Warrenites will soon have an opportunity to witness this spine-tingler, under the capable direction of Marie Hamilton, who has corralled a large cast of local players for her presentation. In fact, the climactic finish to this little bit of horror is so startling that Director Hamilton swears Thursday's audience to solemn secrecy not to reveal the outcome to a soul.

Vole, has accused her affable Irish husband, Leonard, who will be played by Frank Johnson, of murder. As the scenes change, the lurid plot explodes and, according to the British system of justice, the truth comes out, much to the surprise of the audience but still in the tantalizing style of Author Christie.

A reminder from Box Office Chairman Milie Ochs indicates box office will be open both Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week, from 7:00 until 9:00, for single admissions, also that mail order reservations are being accepted now.

FREE METHODIST MISSIONARY MEETING

YOUNGVILLE — WMS members of the Free Methodist church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank Hendrickson for an exchange Mission Study session with ladies of the Sheffield church. The study books, "The Living Faith in Japan and Entering the Open Door in Formosa," were reviewed by Mrs. L. J. ## Choristers To Appear in New Robes For Their Annual Mid-Winter Event

When Warren High School A Cappella Choir presents its annual Mid-Winter Concert in Beaty Junior High School auditorium on Thursday evening, February 27, members will be appearing for the first time in their new blue and white robes.

Directed by Carroll A. Fowler, this year's concert promises to be one of the finest ever presented, with choral selections that are varied and designed to appeal to all musical tastes.

The program will open with the choir members singing for traditional religious numbers. Bach's "In the Steadfast Faith I Stand" and the beautiful "Omnipotence" by Schubert.

Marilyn Haer will play two piano solos, then the choir will return to offer five secular selections, including a negro spiritual, "Elijah Rock," and a folk song, "Annie Laurie."

Following intermission, the group will appear in evening dress and choral selections in a lighter vein will be presented, with such songs as "I Tooted a Horn" and "Songs Mein Grossmama Sang" to be featured.

A quartet, composed of Clyde Baker, Bill Cornwall, Terry Cruickshank and Jay Kimmel, will entertain with barbershop harmony.

Concluding, the choristers will sing a popular group, including such all-time favorites as "When Day is Done" and selections from the musical score of "Oklahoma." Sally McCarty will be featured soloist, doing two numbers.

Accompanists for the evening will be Carolyn Anderson, Martha Peed and Marilyn Haer.

Tickets are priced at 50 cents and may be had from any choir member or from Mr. Fowler.

The president appointed Mrs. Albert DeVore as Auxiliary director to the County Fire Auxiliary.

Mrs. Clyde Miller, program chairman, presented Vilumin Benedicto, exchange student to Warren High School from The Philippines, who gave an interesting and educational talk. At the close of her program, refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Schatzle, Mrs. Leslie Hanna and Mrs. Waxman.

Mirrored in Our Times

Every time a Player's Club opening approaches, one must view with wonder, the many talents needed to make a production successful. On the surface it would appear that the director, producer and cast might be all that's required to put on a play. However, there are countless other individuals skilled in various ways, who work adroitly to special effects once the curtain rises. Stage settings and properties; hand props, costumes, lights, make-up—without these arts, the play would be next to nothing. The forthcoming "Witness for the Prosecution" has posed several problems for the crew at work. London's famed "Old Bailey" had to be re-created and its barristers decked in traditional white wigs (and that's no simple task). There are plenty of moments when nothing seems right and times when one wonders if it ever will be—but those who see the play on February 27 or 28, will be happily delighted with the end result.

Last week we dwelled on glamorous, new hair colors for a lovelier you—but the subject is far from exhausted. The blondes, brunettes and redheads, in all their varied hues, have been well taken care of. But what of the lady whose tresses are undeniably gray? She, too, must have her day! A day when her hair comes alive and is beautifully gray (no longer dull, drab or mousy). How will you have yours? White Sapphire? Midnight Opal, Silver Diamond or Black Pearl? Each will make gray hair sparkly and bright; pretty and full of life and create better hair texture, as well as eliminate or modify yellow tones.

This wonderful product is yours at The Warren Drug Store. Ask for Miss Calliope "Come Alive Gray" in temporary, delicate color tones that last from shampoo to shampoo. Makes gray hair beautifully gray and glamorizes. Just $1.50 plus tax.

Despite the fact that none of us has enjoyed the winter weather, we've still been luckier than some of our neighbors. The school boys and girls may have bemoaned the fact that the school buildings remained open, but we missed other casualties (so far). There seems to be considerable comment around town about the possibility of what happens if the thaw comes too quickly. We'd better start thinking ahead right now and not get caught again in '58.

Did you know that in 1936, a depth study showed that women were buying almost half of men's suits and two-thirds their shirts? It seems this came about because mothers, wives, girl friends and secretaries are keenly interested in seeing to it that their men dress right. It used to be that men were almost too easily satisfied when it came to clothing. They wore suits for years upon years as well as shoes. Suddenly there was a change in attitudes as men became more style conscious—aware that something exciting was going on. Men's clothes became more colorful, comfortable and even carefree. Today the typical man's closet is bursting with Dacron, Orion, nylon, blends, sports jackets, slacks, colored shirts and other paraphernalia. Such facts were gleaned from "The Hidden Persuaders" by Vance Packard and the book also adds that "what the average man of 1960 will look like 'is anybody's guess'."

Today's average man is well-dressed for every occasion and he seeks the "best in menswear" at The Style Shop. War robes contain several suits; plenty of handsome shirts; a fine selection of slacks and sport coats plus attractive accessories to attend each. Local men know and trust The Style Shop for the most complete selection of suitable attire.

Back to "Witness for the Prosecution", we note that Charles Laughton was nominated for an Oscar for his sterling performance as Sir Wilfrid Roberts. Hospital Administrator Joe Williamson will take over the role next week in Warren and is surrounded by a fine cast.

One of the boys upon hearing that a railroad (which shall remain nameless) was now charging 55c for a cup of coffee, remarked—"They must be planning to buy their own plantation."

TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

Truth Seekers Enjoy Meeting And Program

Truth Seekers Class of Grace Methodist church held its February meeting in Fellowship Hall, with 46 members served at tables centered with beautiful African violets.

Kathryn Joy headed a committee comprised of Peg Johnson, Catherine McClement, Prudence Wilson, Elizabeth Templeton, Louise Young, Louise Brooker, Hazel Klinefelter, Pauline Rapp, Mabel Garber, Susie Beebe and Grace Fitzgerald.

Responsible for devotions and program was another group composed of Helen Shelgren, chairman, Mary Fitzgerald, Minnie Hansen, Adda Logan, Ruth Lindquist, Laura Nelson, Henrietta Pierce, Ruth Riquier, Hazel Samuelson, Gertrude Stites, Esther Smith, Mary Wilson.

The meeting opened at 7:45 p. m., when Mrs. Shelgren introduced Helen Friebershauser in devotions using a "Humility" them.

Howard Smith, chairman of the adult council of the church school, was introduced by President Florence Schatzle and explained briefly the duties of the council. He stated, in going over the church rolls, it was found 400 persons were not members of the church school. These names were divided among adult classes for calls in extending an invitation to join and 76 names had been allotted the Truth Seekers Class.

Edna Kyler reported it is hoped to have work of floor covering completed soon; announcement was made of a tureen dinner at which Girl Scout Troop 2 will be guests and give the program.

Ruth Lindquist sang two beautiful solos, "Danny Boy" and "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling", with Jeannette Sizle playing her accompaniment.

At the close of the session, Mrs. Shelgren invited the group to Fellowship Hall, where Mabel Adams gave an instructive talk on the care and growth of African violets.

President Names 4-H Groups Plan Staff Director Fine Program At For C. D. Board Starbrick Friday

By JOHN CHADWICK

Washington, (AP)—One more stumbling block to the functioning of the new Civil Rights Commission was cleared away today with President Eisenhower's nomination of a staff director.

The President announced in Thomasville, Ga., where he is vacationing, that he was naming Gordon M. Tiffany, a former New Hampshire attorney general, for the $22,500-a-year post.

Tiffany said he was accepting the job with "an open mind" and had no preconceived notions about bitterly contested civil rights issues.

As a lawyer, Tiffany has appeared before federal agencies and courts in Washington, but he is not known to most members of Congress.

The six-member commission, provided for in the Civil Rights Act passed by Congress last year, has been marking time while waiting for a staff director to be named. Not even a clerk has yet been hired.

The commission's assignment is to investigate sworn charges of the denial of voting rights because of race, creed or color and to study federal laws and practices relating to civil rights generally.

The full-time staff director will be responsible for supervising the group's day-to-day activities. His appointment is subject to Senate confirmation.

The commission members themselves have not yet been confirmed by the Senate.

Tiffany, 46, is a practicing attorney in Concord, N. H., and now a member of that state's Legislature.

Only Canadian ever to be world's heavyweight boxing champion was Tommy Burns (1906-1908), whose real name was Noah Brusso.

Thanks to our doctors, most Americans can look forward to longer and happier lives than ever before. Some of our deadliest diseases have already been conquered; others are fast being brought under control. Even with cancer, much progress has been made.

Today, more than 800,000 Americans are alive and well, cured of cancer... many of them, because they made a habit of having thorough health checkups every year no matter how well they felt... many others, because they went to their doctors at the first sign of any one of the seven danger signals that may mean cancer... all of them, because they went to their doctors in time.

To learn how to guard yourself against cancer, call the American Cancer Society office nearest you or write to "Cancer" in care of your local Post Office.

California Radio Ham Has Part in Westfield Rescue

WESTFIELD—While eleven school children huddled in their snow-whipped, smashed school bus Sunday afternoon, a radio cry for help—"May Day"—flashed across the U. S. Continent to sunny California and relayed back to effect an electronic age storm rescue.

An Erie truck driver, E. J. "Bud" Trask of Erie, was credited today with the unusual rescue in the midst of the area's worst snowstorm of the winter.

The dramatic story of "radio hams to the rescue" unfolded on snow clogged Route 5 several miles west of Barcelona when a Westfield school bus and a car collided.

The sudden collision touched off a chain-reaction as following trucks in a slow line of vehicles crashed into each other like a folding accordion.

None of the school children were hurt, but one truck driver was later evacuated to Westfield Memorial Hospital. He suffered head, chest and back injuries.

It was at the point that Trask's radio ham, came to the rescue of the stranded children.

Trask's radio "Mayday" message flashed through the air and was picked up by a startled ham Howard J. Morrow of Chatsworth, Calif.

Without hesitation the westerner flashed a relay message which was intercepted by ham E. Wayne Snyder of Warren, O., and in turn relayed to Erie and Westfield police units.

A New York state trooper was dispatched to the scene of the traffic jam, and he in turn was trapped at the wreck scene as drifting roads closed in behind his car.

However, he organized the group of children and adults and led them to the safety of a farm house.

At last report the 11 school children and at least 13 truck drivers are being taken care of in the farm of farmer Frank Stursa.

Last Surviving Sister of Misses Lesser Shop Dies

Miss Catherine Elizabeth Lesser, last surviving sister of the family which operated the Misses Lesser Store at 311 Third avenue, west, died in Warren General Hospital at 4:30 a. m. today following a lingering illness.

Miss Lesser's grandparents immigrated to this country from Alsace-Lorraine and built in Third street the family home which had become a landmark.

The Misses Lesser shop was started in the late 1800s after Miss Lesser's father had first operated a shoe store on the premises. During the early days of the women's ready-to-wear store the Misses Lesser shop was the only place which sold baby layettes and costumes came from all surrounding communities.

The business declined after Miss Lena Lesser died a few years ago and failing health prompted the surviving Miss Lesser to close the shop almost completely during the past year.

Preceding Miss Lesser in death were sisters Miss Elizabeth, Miss Mary, Miss Leona (Lennie) Miss Lena and a brother, Conrad. A niece Mrs. Lewis Hall of Smithport, survives.

Miss Lesser was a member of First Lutheran church and her pastor, the Rev. F. B. Haer, will conduct services in her memory at 2:00 p. m. Friday in a local funeral home. Interment will follow in Oakland cemetery.

In earlier years, Miss Lesser was an enthusiastic patron of the Junior Philomel.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market resumed its irregular and quiet course early today.

Leading stocks fluctuated slightly with changes within a 1-point range.

Steels, base metals, utilities and most leading rails showed small gains. Motors were unchanged to a bit higher. Aircrafts, chemicals and rubbers were irregular.

The business news remained mixed and there was little to inspire a definite market change. The cold spell and heavy snow conditions remained a temporary depressant. On the positive side came reports of lower rates on mortgage loans in various parts of the country.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago—Grains ruled irregular on the Chicago Board of Trade Tuesday.

Most wheat contracts turned lower on profit-taking and technical considerations. Corn declined during early trading on light receipts and continued cold weather.

Soybeans showed the only substantial increases during the day on buying prompted by firmness in vegetable oils.

At the closing bell, wheat was up 1 1/2 to 3/4 cents; corn unchanged to 1/4 cent; oats up 1/4 to 1/2 cent; rye up 1/4 to 1/2 cent; and soybeans up 1 1/2 to 2 1/4 cents.

Grains at outside markets were mixed.

The latest prices:
Wheat: March 218 1/2 to 3/4; May 215 1/2; July 18 1/2; September 198 1/2 to 3/4; December 201 1/2 to 3/4.

Corn: March 112 to 112 1/2; May 115 1/2 to 116; July 118 1/2 to 119; September 118 1/2; December 115 1/2 to 1 1/4.

Oats: March 65 1/2 to 66; May 63 1/2 to 64; July 60 1/2 to 61; September 61 1/2; December 61 1/2.

of American youth into our armed forces; and

"Ultimately, a beleaguered America, her freedoms limited by mounting defense costs, and almost alone in a world dominated by international communism."

Eisenhower last year asked Congress for just a shade under four billion dollars in mutual security funds, as he did today for the new program. Last year Congress appropriated only $2,800,000,000.

The President said the $3,942,000,000 he now requested would be used in this way:

1. For military assistance, $1,800,000,000. He said that part of the aid plan "continues to be the essential program by which we join with our allies and associated nations in maintaining well-armed forces in NATO, the Baghdad Pact, the South-east Asia Treaty Organization and in other key nations of the Far East and Southeast Asia."

It also provides for supplying "advanced weapons."

2. For defense support, $35 million dollars that would go to 12 nations—70 per cent of the total to Korea, Nationalist China, Viet Nam and Turkey—which are supporting substantial military forces.

3. For special assistance, 212 million dollars. Part of the fund would go to "maintain political and economic stability in certain nations where we do not support substantial military forces—for example, Morocco and Libya, where the United States has important Strategic Air Command Bases."

The rest is earmarked for such special projects as malaria eradication and a Latin America program providing training and civilian type equipment to military engineer units for construction of public projects.

4. For the development loan fund, appropriation of 625 million dollars already authorized as additional capital. The purpose of this fund, created last year, is to help friendly nations strengthen themselves by encouraging development of their economies through self-help.

5. For technical cooperation, 20 million dollars for that assistance program as such, and 1 1/2 million for the U. S. contribution to the work of the organization of American States.

6. For an emergency fund, 200 million dollars. Eisenhower said that money is needed to deal with crises which cannot be foreseen—emergencies arising out of the turbulent state of the world today.

7. For other programs, $106,600,000. Those include the U. S. contribution to the United Nations Children's Fund, certain refugee programs, the atom-for-peace program, and the cost of administering economic aid.

Mack, who is scheduled to testify tomorrow, has denounced the charges as "distortions." Whiteside, who also has denied Schwartz's allegations, has said he made numerous loans to Mack but took no part as a lawyer in the FCC case. He said he and Mack have been friends for many years.

Atty. Paul R. Scott and Robert H. Anderson, now a Dade County circuit judge, said Whiteside refused to take on the television case but promised to do what he could for National Airlines' TV subsidiary.

Sir Winston Reported To Have Had Good Night

NICE, France (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill remained in bed at his Riviera vacation villa today after what was described as a slight chill. His secretary said he was perfectly comfortable.

Churchill's 75-year-old personal physician, Lord Moran, flew in from London but he did not seem alarmed over Churchill's condition.

The 83-year-old former British prime minister was put to bed Tuesday after he was examined by his local doctor, Dr. David Roberts. A member of the Churchill entourage said the chill apparently was brought on when Sir Winston lunched Monday on the yacht of Greek millionaire Aristotle Onassis.

Lord Moran and Churchill's secretary, Montagu Brown, talked freely with reporters.

Lord Moran said he could say nothing about Sir Winston's condition until he saw him.

Lord Moran joked with reporters and chatted with Montagu. Earlier a staff member at the vacation villa used the word "flu" in describing Churchill's illness.

Britons use this term to indicate anything from a cold to influenza.

NICE (AP)—Ailing 83-year-old Sir Winston Churchill was reported by a member of his household to have passed a good night.

A staff member at the villa where Churchill is vacationing said the former Prime Minister had suffered a chill and required rest. He insisted that the aged statesman's condition is not serious.

The informant also used the word "flu" in describing Churchill's sickness. Britons employ that term to indicate anything from a cold to influenza.

The British elder statesman was put to bed yesterday.

Lady Churchill flew here from Britain to join her husband and their actress daughter Sarah at the villa of his publisher just outside Monaco. Her trip was announced last week.

Churchill's son Randolph, in New York on a lecture tour, said he had been in touch with London and was not alarmed about his father. He said he plans no change in itinerary at present

Tidoute—Despite 27-point performances of Dick Morrison and Jim Cravener Tuesday night, Tidoute dropped a 70-67 decision to Pleasantville that skidded the hometowners into the Upper Allegheny Valley League cellar.

Pleasantville, winner of two and loser of seven league games scored 26 points in the decisive second quarter that nullified Tidoute's last quarter comeback. In the second chapter, Bill Hartle collected 13 of his high 26 total for the winners.

Hartle had considerable support from Don Mangel with 20 points and Ken Stenze with 12. Pleasantville actually won the game at the foul line, sinking 18 of 30 one-point tries to Tidoute's seven of 17.

Tidoute, now 1-8 in league standings, outbit Pleasantville in field goals, 30 to 6, headed by the big duo of Morrison and Cravener.

European Match Should Clarify Patterson Future

By The Associated Press
Floyd Patterson's 1958 program as World Heavyweight Champion should be clarified after Friday's European title match at Goteborg, Sweden.

If Joe Erskine, the Welshman who holds the British title, dethrones Ingemar Johansson, unbeaten in 18 pro bouts, as European titleholder, Patterson is supposed to fight Erskine next Summer in London.

If Johansson beats Erskine he will be in there shouting for a Patterson match along with the ranking contenders from the American side of the Atlantic.

Two of the ranked heavyweights from this side of the pond will see action Friday night at Madison Square Garden in New York when Nino Valdes of Cuba takes on Alex Miteff of Argentina.

Valdes will be fighting the same day that Erskine gets his big chance. Valdes knocked out Erskine in London last Feb. 19 in one round.

According to the latest rankings, Valdes is No. 5 among the contenders with the National Boxing Association and No. 6 with Ring.

Miteff, who has lost only once in 15 fights, is No. 9 in both rating systems. Miteff's only defeat was a one-round knockout at the hands of Mike DeJohn in Syracuse, Oct. 9.

Erskine has no ranking, but Johansson is No. 7 with the NBA and No. 10 with Ring. Johansson is the Swede who lost to the late Ed Sanders of the United States in the 1952 Olympics.

Valdes has won six straight since he was knocked out by Eddie Machen and outpointed by Zora Foley, the No. 1 and No. 2 contenders, in 1956. Since his upset by DeJohn, Miteff has won two fights, stopping Bob Graves and Tony Gagliardo. His record is 14-1 to Valdes' 41-14-2.

Two veteran Middleweights mix Wednesday at Miami Beach, Fla., where Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N. Y., boxes Kid Gavilan, the Cuban who once held the welter crown. Jones has dropped his last four to Gene Fullmer, Del Flanagan, Willie Vaughn and Joey Giardello. Gavilan has won two of his last three, breaking even in two with Gaspar Ortega and whipping Walt Byrds.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner comes up with an interesting pairing on the Monday series at St. Nicholas arena in New York. Gene Armstrong, unbeaten in 13 fights, faces experienced Charlie Joseph whose 41-7-2 record includes victories over Spider Webb, Willie Vaughn and Tombstone Smith.

The Armstrong-Joseph match will be carried on television (Dumont) in some sections. Jones-Gavilan on ABC-TV and Miteff-Valdes on NBC Radio-TV.

Brown Says Pirates Want to Stay in Pitt

PITTSBURGH (AP)—General Manager Joe L. Brown of the Pittsburgh Pirates says the club has had many offers to move its franchise to other communities.

But, Brown told a local radio audience, the Pirates prefer to remain in this steel center if Pittsburgh can provide anywhere near the facilities offered by other cities.

Brown said the "most tempting offer" has come from New York, which, he claimed, promised a municipal stadium seating 50,000 or more with parking facilities for 10,000 cars.

The Pirates now play in Forbes Field which seats about 35,000.

Speaking of Sports

The Philadelphia Phillies Richie Ashburn broke his own record of most years with 400 or more put-outs by a major league outfielder. He latched onto 502 last season to make it eight years in a row he has grabbed 400 or more. No other outfielder did it more than six times. Penn State's first football coach, George W. (Doc) Hoskins, died in Cincinnati at the age of 93. Hoskins went from state to Bucknell where he served as trainer and coach for many years. In 1912 he joined the Cincinnati baseball Reds and served as trainer each spring until 1934. Bob Friend of the Pirates led the National League the last two years in innings pitched with 591 innings.

Freshman Bill Soffa recently broke the one game Carnegie Tech foul shooting record of 19 set by Alan Frank last year by dunking 21 of 22 against Pitt. Jim Gustave of Bloomsburg led the 14-team Pennsylvania State Teachers College Basketball Conference in scoring at the halfway mark with 101 points, one better than Joe Delise of Indiana. George P. Miller, founder of the State Teachers College Conference, is on leave of absence at Indiana. Tom Qualters, Philadelphia Phillies bonus pitcher from McKeesport, (Pa.) has signed his 1958 contract. Qualters had no decision last year as a relief pitcher after compiling an 11-12 record for Miami in the International League.

Fishery Research In Pennsylvania Enters a New Era

Fishery research in Pennsylvania entered a new era last week when twelve of the State's foremost aquatic biologists met in the conference room of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission in Harrisburg. The session, called by William Voigt, Jr., executive director of the Commission, brought together for the first time the fishery scientists of Lehigh, Penn State and Bucknell Universities, the Carnegie Museum, the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences and the Fish Commission.

According to Gordon Trembley, chief aquatic biologist of the Fish Commission, who presided at the meeting, each of the institutions represented knew that fishery research was part of the others' program, but very rarely was there any collaboration. In his statement, he added, "From this point on an exchange of plans will be made which will not only avoid duplication of efforts, but will very likely result in earlier research in fields that otherwise would have been delayed."

During the day-long session the work and plans of each group were described, views were exchanged on other types of research that needed doing and a means of information exchange was worked out. It was also agreed that similar conferences would be held every six months.

Present at the session of the Fish Commission staff in addition to Voigt and Trembley were Dr. Albert Hazzard, assistant executive director of the Fish Commission, and Arthur Bradford, assistant chief aquatic biologist. Others present were Drs. Roy C. Tasker and Norman H. Stewart of Bucknell University, Drs. James E. Wright and Edwin L. Cooper of Penn State University, Dr. Francis J. Trembley of Lehigh University, Drs. Neil Richmond and M. Graham Netting of the Carnegie Museum, and Drs. John Cairns, Jr., and James Bohle of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences. Dr. Clarence A. Tryon of the University of Pittsburgh was unable to attend.

Russell Proves He Is Best in Pro Basketball

NEW YORK (AP)—The Boston Celtics were at the Garden to play the New York Knickerbockers and big Bill Russell broke into a grin as he stepped into the circle for the center jump against 6-11 Ray Felix.

That was the last time anything but concentration showed on the face of Russell, the 6-10 former San Francisco All-America and Olympic ace who now stars for the Celtics, the best in the National Basketball Assn. and some say, the best basketball team ever assembled.

Within the next 48 minutes of play, or until his stuff shot clinched a 113-111 victory, Russell was all over the floor. He scored 16.

Syracuse was crushed by the Detroit Pistons, 120-98 at Detroit as George Yardley, the NBA's

Company I Third Muster Day Is Set for Saturday

A custom older than this nation will be re-enacted Saturday, February 22, when members of Company I, 112 Infantry Pennsylvania National Guard, will gather for their third annual "Muster Day" observance.

Lt. George Huhn, commander of Company I, stated today that the occasion will be marked by an open house and equipment display at Warren Armory.

Company I, Lt. Huhn said, is only one of more than 6,000 Army and Air National Guard units throughout the United States and its territories which will honor our first President on the date of his birth. In all, some 375,000 Guardsmen will participate.

This year the citizens of Warren will do the inspecting—not on the village green but in a modern armory. Instead of flocks of men they will inspect semi-automatic rifles, mortars, machine guns, pistols and the latest in communication devices.

"One of the most important contributions we expect our Muster Day celebration to make is a public awareness of how far the National Guard has come during the past 300 years without changing its basic principle of voluntary military training on a part time basis," Lt. Huhn explained. The Guard has demonstrated repeatedly that it can stay up with the times without losing its identity of purpose.

Lt. Huhn also stated that as part of this Muster Day celebration all members of the company will be out in an attempt to gain new members for the company. "This year," Lt. Huhn said, "we are attempting to recruit young men in the local high schools who have a military obligation to fulfill and ex-servicemen who still have a reserve obligation and ex-servicemen who are interested in military activities but have fulfilled the obligations."

Business Mirror

Editors Note—Cutting costs is by postponing borrowing or by asking stockholders to buy new corporate security issues instead—is regarded by some bankers as perhaps as great a reason for softening interest rates as the action of the Federal Reserve Board so far.

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Going steady is a problem today for heads of business houses too. In this case it's the unwelcome trend for high or even record sales to keep company with falling profits. Management is working hard to cut costs.

In its more painful form this has led to closure of unprofitable plants or retail outlets, layoffs or shortened work weeks.

In its mildest form cost cutting is the old-time economy wave which sweeps offices and factories periodically, stressing savings in pencils, phone calls and electric light bills.

When they can, plants are trying to offset rising labor costs by getting more product per man-hour. This includes stepping up mechanization and automation.

A recent variant was the reported pact between labor and management in the construction trades for the elimination of featherbedding and other costly tricks of the trade.

Some firms cut back on customer services, prune outgrowth routines and methods, cut away employee deadwood. Numerous firms encourage earlier retirements.

Customers complain that some firms are saving money by lowering the quality of their products.

Two forms of cost cutting popular of late—lowering the costs of carrying big inventories by turning to hand-to-mouth purchasing and postponing plans for building new plant or buying new equipment—have been blamed for starting this recession. The duration of these practices has been called the setter of the slump's timetable.

Another form of saving—dodging bank charges for needed cash
